

Fall Together

Door2Door to the Arts | Fall 2011

All prices include discounted admission and roundtrip transportation

New! - Comedy

Saturday, November 12, 7:30 p.m. | Cost: $36

Martinis & Merriment: Old and Young Jews Telling Jokes

Jewish Theatre of New England with Boston Comedy
(Jewish Community Center – Newton)

Sam Hoffman, architect of the wildly popular website, Old Jews Telling Jokes, and author of the bestselling book by the same name, is joined by nationally-known comedian Jon Fisch and Rabbi Moshe Waldoks for an evening of comedy, jokes, discussion and, of course, a martini. (Martini and munchies included in ticket price.)

New! - Lectures

Tuesday, October 18, 6 p.m. | Cost: $10

Malcolm Rogers

Lowell Lecture Series, Boston Public Library at Copley

Malcolm Rogers assumed the role of Ann & Graham Gund Director of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston in 1994. During the past 16 years, he has expanded the Museum's collection, presented a variety of innovative exhibitions, enhanced arts education programs, significantly enlarged the MFA's campus, welcomed new audiences and renovated & reopened both historic entrances and undergone a transformative building expansion & renovation.

Sunday, November 20, 11:00 a.m. | Cost: $27

Keynote Brunch*

JCC Boston Jewish Book Fair (Leventhal-Sidman JCC, Newton)

Diane Henriques, author In conversation with Emmy Award-winning investigative reporter Hank Phillippi Ryan.

Get the inside scoop from a leading authority as New York Times senior financial writer Diane Henriques discusses her bestselling book about the Madoff scandal. "Henriques probably knows more than anyone outside the FBI and the Securities and Exchange Commission about the mechanics of the fraud." New York Times. (*Price includes bagel brunch.)

New! - Movies

Wednesday, October 5 & November 2,
11:00–3:00 p.m. | Cost: $8 (transportation)

Showcase Cinema de Lux Revere

We will take you to the cinema, where you'll pick the movie you'd like to see (for an additional charge of $4.50). Take advantage of the affordable food court while you wait for your movie to start or after it's finished.

Museums

Saturday, October 22, 10:30-1:30 p.m. | Cost: $20

Museum of Russian Icons (guided tour)

The largest collection of its kind in North America and one of the largest private collections outside Russia, the museum's collection includes more than 400 icons. The collection spans six centuries, and includes important historical paintings dating from the earliest periods of icon "writing" to the present. After our visit, we will go to a nearby restaurant for lunch. Please note: Lunch is not included in price.

Reservations:

Door2Door will pick you up and return you to your door.

To reserve a space, call Joe Marcucci at 617-767-1529 (M-F, 9-5) or email: jmarcucci@scmtransportation.org. Space is limited so don't delay, reserve your space today. www.scmtransportation.org

Music

Thursday, October 13, 10:30 a.m. | Cost: $32

Boston Symphony Orchestra Rehearsal – Dvorák (Cello Concerto) and Bartók (The Wooden Prince)

Boston Symphony Hall

Juanjo Mena, conductor and Yo-Yo Ma, cello

This is a working rehearsal during which the conductor may stop the orchestra to rehearse specific passages of the music. Conductors may choose to repeat or omit movements or works.

Thursday, October 20, 8 p.m. | Cost: $20

Dawn Upshaw in Recital

Tufts University (Distler Performance Hall)

Internationally renowned soprano Dawn Upshaw is joined by long-standing collaborator, the acclaimed pianist Gilbert Kalish. As Jeremy Eichler of the Boston Globe wrote in 2009, "Dawn Upshaw is one of the most significant and dramatically moving singers before the public today, and right now she is unmistakably in her prime. At the end of a strong Upshaw performance, one feels not dazzled by a glittering operatic star, but rather swept into the world of a fellow life-traveler."

Friday, November 4, 8:00 p.m. | Cost: $34

Cantata Singers (NEC Jordan Hall)

Program: The Extended Arch – featuring J.S. Bach – Brandenburg Concerto No. 1 in F, Lutheran Mass in F and Stephen Hartke – Precepts (A Cantata Singers co-commission with Winsor Music), Brandenburg Autumn.

Tuesday, November 15, 8:15 p.m. | Cost: $22

Singer's Night

Berklee College of Music (Berklee Performance Hall)

Students have to audition to participate in Berklee's premiere vocal event. It offers a variety of styles, including pop, rock, country and jazz from the college's exceptional singers.

Warning: this concert is loud!

Tuesday, November 22, 7:30 p.m. | Cost: $12

Black Composers' Concert

Berklee College of Music (David Friend Recital Hall)

Features the music of African American composers led by Bill Banfield, Berklee Faculty member.

Theater

Saturday, October 1, 2:00 p.m. | Cost: $27

Candide

Huntington Theatre Company (B.U. Theatre)

Tony Award & MacArthur "Genius" Grant-winning director Mary Zimmerman's breathtaking new production features a soaring score and lyrics from the wittiest writers of our time. Bernstein's Candide enchants with some of the most memorable music ever written for Broadway.

Saturday, November 19, 3:00 p.m. | Cost: $56

Ain't Misbehavin' Lyric Stage Company

The extraordinary comic and musical soul of 1930s Harlem lives on in this rollicking, swinging evening of rowdy and humorous songs, including Honeysuckle Rose and The Joint is Jumpin' that capture the various moods of the era and reflect Waller's view of life as a journey meant for pleasure and play.

Sponsored by
SCM Community
Transportation

Door2Door
Transportation by SCM

With funding generously donated by

TUFTS  Health Plan
FOUNDATION